January Jubilee

January 15, 2011

After years of playing for churches, I need some fresh ideas.

I wish my Pastor and I understood each other better.

With the demands of my life, I do not have enough practice time.

I am an organist but I can only practice on a piano

I need greater resources for my diverse congregation.

If I have to play one more wedding or funeral, it will be the death of me!

What Should I Do?

The One Day Solution...
Ten opportunities to learn:

- ❖ Organ Literature I
Music with and without pedals.
Led by Sheila Hess.
- ❖ Organ Literature II
More advanced music.
Led by Samuel Springer.
- ❖ African American Music
Organ, choral music and hymn techniques in the African American tradition.
Led by Irvin Peterson.
- ❖ Service Playing
Hymn playing ideas, registrations and other console techniques.
Led by Dale Krider.
- ❖ Public Relations
How to advertise your musical event
and get the public to attend.
Led by Jeffrey Pannebaker.
- ❖ Pastor / Musician relations
Creating a dynamic Partnership.
Led by John Walker and his pastor
The Rev. Andrew Foster Connors.
- ❖ Choral Music and Worship Planning
Anthems, conducting techniques and worship planning resources.
Led by Nae Pearson.
- ❖ The Digital Organ
How to use it most effectively.
Led by Ken Brown
- ❖ Handbells
Techniques for ringing and sample music.
Led by Nae Pearson
- ❖ Wedding-Funeral Music
Dealing with the families.
Led by Dale Krider
